

Professional Personnel

Tutoring

The tutoring of students, outside of the school day, by District teachers will be allowed following a written notification, by either teacher or parent, to the teacher's building administrator. Under no circumstances, however, may any District teacher tutor, for non-District paid compensation, a student presently in their class.

ADOPTED: January 16, 2001